

YOU ARE INVITED TO A PUBLIC CONSULTATION EVENT

Proposed Redevelopment of Pontypridd Magistrates' Court

Jehu Group (in association with Linc Cymru Housing Association and Rhondda Cynon Taf County Borough Council) is proposing the residential re-development of the Former Pontypridd Magistrates' Court site on Union Street in Pontypridd. The proposed scheme seeks to develop 60 affordable extra care apartments for the over 50s in line with Rhondda Cynon Taf's identified local housing need.

We would like to invite you to attend a drop-in event so that you can find out more about these proposals and we can answer any questions you may have.

Venue: Lido Ponty, Ynysangharad War Memorial Park, Pontypridd CF37 4PE

Date: Thursday 7th June 2018

Time: 4-7pm

Please be aware that there is no visitor parking available onsite and attendees are advised to walk, arrive by public transport, or utilise a nearby public car park.

Please come along during the above times to talk to members of staff from, Jehu Group, Linc Cymru Housing Association, Quattro Design and GVA about this project.

Tea & coffee will be served.
